LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

It is my pleasure to recommend Saurabh Deepak Jagtap, who completed an internship with VELoop Rewards as a Full Stack Development Intern. During the internship, they demonstrated a positive attitude toward learning, professional development, and gaining practical experience within their chosen field.

Throughout their association with VELoop Rewards, They participated in assignments and activities relevant to their area of specialization. They demonstrated curiosity, adaptability, receptiveness to guidance, and a genuine willingness to understand new concepts and improve their knowledge through practical experience.

Their learning-oriented approach and openness to feedback were particularly appreciated. They showed an interest in developing their capabilities while gaining an understanding of professional responsibilities, teamwork, task execution, and workplace expectations.

Based on their learning attitude, adaptability, professional conduct, and potential for continued development, VELoop Rewards is pleased to recommend Saurabh Deepak Jagtap for future learning, internship, training, academic, and suitable professional opportunities aligned with their interests and career aspirations. We believe continued practice and professional exposure will enable them to further strengthen their

We wish them continued learning in their future.

Warm regards,

AYAN ALAM
